WILDLIFE DISCOVERY

MARCH 1 - 31, 2016, OPEN HOUSE: MARCH 17, 5-7PM

Trailside Galleries is pleased to present its annual "Wildlife Discovery", exhibition and sale featuring all new works from an outstanding group of nationally known wildlife painters. The Jackson gallery has a long tradition of hosting this event, as the area attracts a variety of wildlife enthusiasts including including photographers, nature buffs and of course, wildlife artists! Many of the country's most noted wildlife painters and sculptors will participate in the event, bringing an eclectic mixture of wildlife and natural subjects from around the world. While the primary focus of the show is North American mammals, the show will also include works depicting delicate birds and smaller species of animals. The show will hang during the month of March with an Open House scheduled for Thursday March 17 from 5:00 – 7:00 pm.

Wildlife art continues to be one of the most collected genres of art in the country. Given the heightened awareness of global warming and fragile ecosystems, the genre has taken on a whole new dimension, as the artists strive not only to create an esthetically pleasing image, but to have it serve as an educational tool to bring more awareness to preservation.
