FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 13, 2014

TIM SOLLIDAY

Saturday, September 13, 2014, 4-7pm

Jackson, WY...Trailside Galleries is pleased to present California artist Tim Solliday in a showcase of new works that will be on exhibit September 1-14, 2014. The event takes place during the busy week of the Jackson Hole Fall Arts Festival, which attracts collectors, museum curators, and fine art enthusiasts from across the country. The artist reception will take place at the gallery on Saturday, September 13, 2014 from 4:00–7:00 pm which coincides with the gallery's Fall Gold Exhibition and Sale. Due to high collector demand, all Solliday works will be sold by draw during the reception.

Born in 1952 and inspired to paint by his artist-father, Tim Solliday studied with early California Impressionist, Theodore N. Lukits (1897-1992). Here, Solliday honed his exceptional skills and solidified his goal of capturing beauty on canvas in the plein-air style. Solliday's work is a unique combination of the historic and the contemporary, drawing inspiration from turn-of-the-century California and Western artists such as Ernest Blumenschein, Frank Tenney Johnson and Dean Cornwell. Solliday's work is based on a solid sense of design, pattern and bright, vibrant color.

Tim Solliday is a signature member of the California Art Club and the Pastel Society of America as well as a member of the Laguna Art Association.
